Mr. POWELL,

IT may ſeem ſtrange, or be thought impertinent, for one under my Signature, to take up the Time of your Readers, with Obſervations which ſhould properly come from a ſettled Inhabitant: But there is, in my Opinion, a Duty owing to the Community, from every Individual, whether he be a Settler or a Sojourner, that will not ſuffer me to be ſilent, tho' I have, otherwiſe, a real Averſion to appear in Print.

When there is a Probability that any Man may be inſtrumental, even in the moſt diſtant View, of promoting the general Good of whatever Community he is a Member, if he ſees an Opening, he ſhould attempt it; if the Proſpect of ſucceeding lies fair before him, he muſt be unexcuſable not to do ſo; more eſpecially, where that ineſtimable Bleſſing is poſſeſſed, which is now ſo fully enjoyed throughout the Britiſh Empire—a FREE PRESS—thro' which every Man, be his Situation in Life ever ſo obſcure, and his Abilities ever ſo ſmall, has it in his Power to be more or leſs ſerviceable to his Country.

From what has been premiſed, my leading Motive for becoming your Correſpondent is pretty apparent: But I am alſo incited to it, by my Love of Mankind in general, and the Gratitude I owe to the worthy Inhabitants of this Province in particular, whom I muſt ever diſtinguiſh above all others that I have ſeen, for their peculiar Hoſpitality, Benevolence and Politeneſs to me, and all Strangers, as well as their natural Bent to every ſocial Virtue.

I am however aware, that even here, there are not wanting thoſe who will charge me with Preſumption; but they ſhall not diſcourage me from my preſent Purpoſe.

Enquiries have already been made (where I was preſent) "Who could this STRANGER be that pretended to ſet up for "a Reformer?" It can be of very little Conſequence, whether the Curioſity of ſuch People be gratified or not, as my Intentions are not to amuſe, but to raiſe a ſerious Attention——yet you are at Liberty, Mr. Powell, to tell all your Readers, as much of me, as I chuſe you ſhould know yourſelf: Which is,

That after ſpending ſome Time in making a Tour thro' a conſiderable Part of Europe, I returned to England, the Place of my Nativity, towards the Cloſe of the Year 1762: But my Deſire of ſeeing more of the World ſtill continuing, I ſoon determined to viſit North-America alſo; and with that View embarked early in 1763. That I landed upon this Continent in May the ſame Year; paſſed thro' every Colony from Quebec to Weſt-Florida, examining the Sea-Coaſts of all, as well as the interior Parts of moſt of them, and reſiding a ſufficient Time in the Metropolis of each Province, to attain a competent Knowledge of its Situation, Climate, Soil, Products, Manufactures, Commerce, internal Polity, the Manners of the Inhabitants, and every other Object that a Traveller ſhould wiſh to be informed of. That having completed my Plan in about ſeven Years, I returned here in 1770, on that memorable Day in which the Inhabitants of this Province receded from certain Reſolutions they had deliberately entered into about 18 Months before, determined (as I afterwards diſcovered) to be no longer duped by the infamous Deceptions of thoſe whoſe Conduct I may hereafter have occaſion to mention. That having reſided in this Province ever ſince, and, upon comparing it with the Reſt, remarked, that it has many ſuperior Advantages, and is capable of vaſt Improvements in every View; and alſo finding myſelf particularly attached to the Inhabitants, I have given it ſuch a Preference to all the other Colonies—that, when I leave it (as I propoſe to do in April next) it ſhall be with a Deſign to become a ſettled Inhabitant—provided your many excellent Laws, ſome of which I am now peruſing, be ſo obſerved and enforced, as to render the Health and Security of the People leſs precarious than they appear to be at preſent.

If you will indulge me, Mr. Powell, my Obſervations upon ſeveral of theſe Laws ſhall, from Time to Time, be put into your Hands for Publication—with the View to excite that Attention to them which the Public Welfare demands. Perhaps I may alſo uſe the Freedom to point out ſuch of them as appear to me to be manifeſtly defective, neglected, infringed, evaded, or perverted: But I ſhall do nothing in a dictatorial Stile—I will only endeavour to ſhew the Evils; let others find out and apply the Remedies.

The firſt of your Laws that attracted my particular Notice, is that which was intended to prevent the Introduction of malignant and contagious Diſorders, paſſed in the Year 1759, and revived and continued ſo lately as in April 1768, for ſeven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of the General Aſſembly.

Upon a careful Peruſal of that Act, I thought it impoſſible, that the MEASLES, which now prove ſo mortal, could have been introduced here as you inform'd us they were, in your Paper of the 30th of July; or that the Report could be true, that the laſt Veſſel from Ireland brought in the HOOPING-COUGH alſo; unleſs thoſe Diſorders are thought not to belong to the malignant or contagious Sort——for

The firſt Clauſe of that Law enacts, "That every Pilot, before he enters on board ANY Veſſel deſigned for this Province, or on this Coaſt, ſhall diligently enquire of the Commander, whether any Plague, malignant Fever, Small-Pox, or other contagious Diſorder be on board, or [if ſuch prevailed] at the Port from which it laſt came."——To which every ſuch Pilot is required to be ſworn.

In the following Clauſes—every Ship-Maſter is required to anſwer the Queſtions of ſuch Pilots, without Reſerve or Equivocation. He is next to be told, that no Perſon is to come aſhore, nor is the Pilot to bring up any Perſon whoſoever, 'till ſuch Maſter has undergone an Examination at the Fort, where the Veſſel is to be laid by, or brought to an Anchor, 'till true Anſwers ſhall have been made, on Oath, to the following Queſtions, either by himſelf, or, if he is incapable of going aſhore, by the Doctor, with any one other Officer, and where there ſhall be no Doctor, by an Offices and a common Sailor, viz.

"Whether or not the Sailors, Paſſengers, and People imported in the ſaid Veſſel, are in Health, and free from the Small-Pox, Plague, malignant Fever, and all contagious Diſtempers?

"And, if any of them ſhall happen to be ſick; then, how many are ſo, and what Diſtemper they and each of them are ſick of?

"Whether or not any Sailors, Paſſengers, Slaves or other People, which were on board the ſaid Ship, died in their Voyage to this Province—and if any died, how many, how long since, and of what Diſtemper?

"What Veſſels he, or any of his Ship's Company with his Privity, were on board of, and what Company from ſuch Veſſels were on board his Ship, during the Voyage? To what Places ſuch Veſſels belonged, and from whence they laſt came?"

When, if it ſhall appear to the commanding Officer of the Fort, that ſuch Veſſel may be ſuffered to paſs, he ſhall permit it to come up.

But in Caſe any Perſon ſo required to be ſworn, ſhall refuſe or neglect to anſwer, upon Oath as aforeſaid—or if it ſhall appear to the Governor or Commander in Chief, by Examination on Oath, that there is any malignant or contagious Diſtemper on board any Veſſel; then ſuch Veſſel, with all the People that came in it, ſhall be immediately compelled to remove, and Anchor where the Governor or Commander in Chief ſhall appoint, and there perform Quarantine, under ſuch Rules and Orders as he ſhall from Time to Time think proper to iſſue.

The 5th Clauſe enacts, That no Veſſel coming from any Port where any malignant or contagious Diſtemper prevails (tho' all be well on board) ſhall be ſuffered to paſs 'till viſited by ſome Phyſician appointed for that Purpoſe, and ſuch Phyſician has certified to the Commander of the Fort, that there is no Cauſe for its Detention.

The 7th—That no Veſſels having more than thirty Paſſengers or white Servants, or ten Negroes or Slaves, ſhall be permitted to paſs the Fort, 'till they have lain in the Road ten Days, been viſited by a Phyſician on the 9th Day, and ſuch Phyſician has certified the Health of the People.

The 9th and 10th—forbids People going on board or coming on ſhore, from Veſſels performing Quarantine, under the Penalties therein particularly mentioned.

The laſt Clauſe that I ſhall beg Leave to lay before your Readers, is the XIVth—which enacts,

That if the Maſter, Commander, Doctor, or any of the Officers or common Sailors of any Veſſel, ſhall give a falſe Account of the State of Health on board; or untrue Anſwers make to any of the Queſtions required to be put, on Oath; or if the Commander of any Fort, or any Pilot, ſhall neglect or refuſe to do and perform all and every Matter and Thing by this Act required to be done, they ſhall reſpectively be ſubject to the following Pains and Penalties, viz.

The Maſter, Commander, or Doctor, to 200l. Proclamation Money, and one Year's cloſe Impriſonment, without Bail or Mainprize.

The Mate, and any other Officer,—100l. and ſix Months like Impriſonment.

And every common Sailor,—10l. and three Months like Impriſonment.

The Commander of every Fort, to a Penalty of 500l. Proclamation Money.

And every Pilot, to 100l. beſides Incapacitation.

I ſhall now conclude with a few Queſtions, viz.

Are the Pilots ſworn, as in and by the ſaid Act is directed?

Are they conſcientiouſly mindful of their Qualification-Oath, with Reſpect to this very important Law?

Are ALL the Queſtions therein required to be put to the Maſters of Veſſels, and by them to be faithfully anſwered, at the ſeveral Forts, diſtinctly propoſed, and with a becoming Seriouſneſs and Solemnity?

Have the Directions of the ſaid Act been ſo ſtrictly complied with, that there has been no Foundation for a ſingle Proſecution? which, I am told, never yet has happened.

Can it be called Tenderneſs? or, is it not the worſt of Parricides, where the Health and Life of many Individuals are at Stake, not to make Examples of thoſe who have violated the ſaid Act?

We already have three Scourges amongſt us, to the great Affliction and Loſs of many Families—and may God forgive thoſe who contributed to their being brought here. Whether this happened thro' their Negligence or Ignorance, a Fault ſurely lies at ſome Door—and if we be not more attentive for the Time to come, a freſh Rod hangs over our Heads, and may quickly fall upon us, if Veſſels coming from Philadelphia or other Places, infected with the SMALL-POX, are permitted to come up directly to Town, as they have hitherto been allowed to do.

I am, Your's, &c. THE STANGER.

Auguſt 4th, 1772.

CHARLES-TOWN, AUGUST 13.

A Number of his Majesty's Troops in different Parts of North-America and the West-Indies are in Motion—but such are their Motions, that it is not easy to discover their ultimate Destination.—Some imagine, that they are to be employed in reducing the native and mongrel Breed of Charaibs at St. Vincent, whose Enmity to the English has much impeded the Settlement of that valuable Island.

There has lately been a Massacre of Indians in Maryland, which it is thought will produce serious Consequences.

We are informed that six white People and a Negro, were killed by some Cherokee Indians about the 25th ult. 150 Miles above Augusta; but that Mr. Cameron (the Superintendant's Deputy in the Cherokee Nation) has been promised Satisfaction.

On the 14th ult. the Representatives of the Province of Massachusetts-Bay, passed an humble Petition and Remonstrance to the King, praying that his Majesty would be graciously pleased to take into his Consideration, the Grievances which his Subjects in America labour under, by Reason of the Acts of Parliament for raising a Revenue without their Consent. In this Petition the making Provision for the Support of the Governor independent of the General Assembly, by virtue of the Acts aforesaid, is set forth as a Grievance which threatens the Ruin of the Constitution.

Last Sunday arrived here the Comet Packet-Boat, commanded by Capt. McDonough, with the Mails from Jamaica and Pensacola.

The same Day embarked for Philadelphia, in the Brigantine Prince of Wales, Capt. Moore——Thomas-Loughton Smith, Esq; Mrs. Smith, Zachariah Villepontoux, Esq; Daniel Huger, Esq; Henry Kelly, Esq; Mr. Abraham Lot (of New-York) and several other Passengers.

On Monday last died, much regretted by all who knew him, Doct. Jacob Nicholas Schwartzkopff—verily an honest Man.

On Tuesday embarked in the Carolina, Capt. Lowley, to return to England, Doct. Thomas Caw, Mrs. Caw, with Mr. Woolham, and some others.
